

Eagle Latch

Bullet with cast in wire is designed to be used for thruster replacement, performed offshore

- Made from high strength steel
- The Eagle latch has a top that are to be potted to the lifting wire
- May be connected/disconnected in horizontal position when without load
- Operated by ROV manipulator
- Will require installation of special equipment in vessel for thruster replacement, or adaptation to existing equipment
- Can be equipped with a bend restrictor from the lower threaded part to the upper bullet

For further information, email commercial@imenco.com